

Jessica Chalmers is musician and backing vocalist living in Melbourne, VIC. Following moving from country Victoria she studied at Monash University, graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Music, specialising in Popular Voice. She was immediately offered a working internship for industry luminary Chong Lim AM, who would go on to mentor and coach Jessica. She has been mentored by original backing vocalists of the John Farnham band.

Jessica's career as a professional vocalist spans across several years and in 2021 she sang at the Australian Open 100th Anniversary Women's Grand Final. Following this opportunity, she has continued to perform at the national level at events such as the 2022 Australian Open Women's Semi and Grand Final and 2021 & 2022 AFL Grand Final.

Her largest achievement to date has been her work backing for international platinum success Robbie Williams. Jessica was hand picked to perform at his two night 'Evening with Robbie Williams' performances at Rod Laver Arena, followed by filming for his biopic. From this she has continued to perform with Williams at private events and most recently for his opening entertainment at the AFL Grand Final.
